

Join the lecture to learn more about power market reforms taking place in Norway and on Nordic power market, find out about ongoing developments towards European market expansion and integration

Faculty of Electrical Engineering in cooperation with Academia Europaea Knowledge Hub Wrocław, Center of International Debate Wrocław, Institute of Highway Technology and Innovation (IATI) Consortium - Centre Competence Smart Power Grids, International Office and Careers Office of Wrocław University of Technology invite on a lecture of Professor Einar Hope, Department of Economics at the Norwegian School of Economics (NHH) considering power market reforms by experience of Norway and Nordic-Baltic market.

Lessons from power sector reform – the Norwegian and Nordic power market reform experience, and beyond

Einar Hope

15.10.2015 (Thursday) – room 314, building D-20, 13:15-15:00

Abstract:

- Background for the Norwegian and Nordic power market reforms
- Some methodological and conceptual issues in power market reforms
- Lessons of the integrated Nordic-Baltic power market reforms and ongoing developments towards European market expansion and integration
- Summary of international lessons
- Challenges and unresolved issues

Professor of Energy Economics at the Norwegian School of Economics (NHH) since 1999
President and Research Director of the Foundation for Research in Industrial Economics (SNF) at NHH, 1978-1995
Director General of the Norwegian Competition Authority, 1995-1999
Director, Institute for Industrial Economics, 1972-78
Ph.D. in Economics from the Norwegian School of Economics, 1967
Headed the research project at SNF/NHH 1988-98 that laid the analytical and operational foundation for the Norwegian power sector reform and the Norwegian Energy Act of 1990
President of the International Association for Energy Economics (IAEE), 2010
Book review Editor of the IAEE journal Economics of Energy and Environmental Policy (EEEP) since 2011

General Conference Chair of the 39 IAEE International Conference in Bergen and NHH, 19-22 June 2016

Member of the Board of the Bergen Hub of Academia Europaea since 2013

Appointed Knight of the First Order of the Royal St. Olav Order by the Knight of Norway for excellent services "to Norwegian society and mankind", 2007

For organizational reasons participants of the meeting are kindly asked to fill a short registration form available at : <http://goo.gl/forms/RhR4kLslot>